

JUPITER

ECLIPTIC CHARTS. Scale is 5 mm to 1°. Stars to magnitude 6 are shown. Part of the planet's course in the neighboring years is shown in blue. When the planet is in the morning sky (before opposition and after Sun-conjunction), its course is shown gray. Blue bars connect Jupiter's position to those of other planets at dates when they are closest.

